Professors Rogers and Forrester have contributed a luncheon for up to six law students with SMU basketball head coach, Matt Doherty. Coach Doherty was a teammate of Michael Jordan and James Worthy at the University of North Carolina. He was a four year starter for UNC and was on the 1982 team that won the national championship with a 32-2 record. Before coaching at SMU, he served as head coach of Notre Dame and his alma mater, North Carolina, where he was named Associated Press National Coach of the Year in 2000. Previously he was an assistant coach at Kansas and Davidson College.

Mazzocco Wine

2006 Reserve Zinfandel, West Dry Creek, Dry Creek Valley. Delightful fragrances of mocha-accented raspberry, plum and spice swim on a bed of rose petals. The inviting mouth entry composed of lush blackberry jam and fig comfit, highlighted with spicy cayenne pepper, lead to a firm core of plush tannins accented with allspice.
