

TIM MILLER

in his critically acclaimed one-man show

'GLORY BOX'

October 1, 2004 • 6 pm • Hughes-Trigg Theater

GLORY BOX is a funny, sexy and charged exploration of Tim Miller's journeys through the challenge of love, gay marriage, and the struggle for immigration rights for gay people and their partners. From Miller's hilarious grade school playground battles over wanting to marry another boy to the harrowing travails of being in a bi-national relationship with his Australian lover, GLORY BOX leads the audience on an intense and humorous journey into the complexity of the human heart that knows no boundary. GLORY BOX (the term that Australians use for "hope chest") conjures an alternative site for the placing of memories, hopes and dreams of gay people's extraordinary potential for love.

Tim Miller is an internationally acclaimed solo performer. Hailed for their humor and passion, Miller's performance works have delighted and emboldened audiences all over the world at such prestigious venues as Yale Repertory Theatre, the London Institute of Contemporary Art, the Walker Arts Center, Actors Theatre of Louisville and the Brooklyn Academy of Music Next Wave Festival. He is the author of the books SHIRTS & SKIN and BODY BLOWS, an anthology of six of his performance scripts with an introduction by Tony Kushner.
